

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
OR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JESSE L. YOUNGBLOOD,

Plaintiff, No. CIV S-05-0727 LKK DAD P

VS.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, et al.,

Defendants. ORDER

Plaintiff is a state prisoner proceeding pro se. On April 13, 2005, plaintiff initiated this action by filing an application to proceed in forma pauperis. On May 13, 2005, the court advised plaintiff that he could proceed with this action only by filing a complaint. Subsequently, plaintiff attempted to file over 2,800 pages of documents with the court, none of which were a complaint. On August 1, 2005, the court directed the Clerk of the Court to return the approximately 2800 pages documents to plaintiff and again directed plaintiff to file his complaint using the form provided by the court if he wished to pursue this action. Plaintiff was also advised that challenges to the fact or duration of his custody must be pursued in a separate habeas action. On September 1, 2005, plaintiff filed his civil rights complaint. Also pending before the court are plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis and several motions.

1 Plaintiff has filed three applications requesting leave to proceed in forma pauperis.
2 The court will review the latest application which was filed on August 29, 2005. The application
3 makes the showing required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). Accordingly, the request to proceed in 4 forma pauperis will be granted.

5 Plaintiff is required to pay the statutory filing fee of $250.00 for this action. 28
6 U.S.C. § 1914(a), 1915(b)(1). Plaintiff has been without funds for six months and is currently 7 without funds. Accordingly, the court will not assess an initial partial filing fee. 28 U.S.C.
8 § 1915(b)(1). Plaintiff is obligated to make monthly payments of twenty percent of the preceding
9 month's income credited to plaintiff's prison trust account. These payments shall be collected
10 and forwarded by the appropriate agency to the Clerk of the Court each time the amount in 11 plaintiff's account exceeds $10.00, until the filing fee is paid in full. 28 U.S.C.
12 § 1915(b)(2).

13 Plaintiff's complaint, which was eventually filed on September 1, 2005, is 14 disjointed and at times nonsensical. Plaintiff names Oroville Police Department detective Jason 15 Barkley as a defendant in this action, as well as the following additional defendants:

16 Deputy District Attorney Mark Murphy/B.C.S.J./O.P.D./Office
17 Lagrone/B of A/Parole Agent Mathew - Goughnor/Butte
18 County/The People/State of California/Butte County Sheriffs Dept.
19 & Sheriff, Perry L. Reniff/Butte - County Superior Court/Urban 20 Manor Apartments/D.V.I./H.D.S.P./U.S. Government.

21 (Compl., at 3.) As best the court can determine, it appears that plaintiff is alleging that his civil 22 rights were violated during his parole search, arrest, conviction in 2003 for bank robbery and his 23 incarceration at the Butte County Jail.

24 Plaintiff is advised that challenges concerning his 2003 conviction may only be 25 pursued in a habeas action. See Preiser v. Rodriguez, 411 U.S. 475 (1973). Plaintiff should file 26 a habeas petition and an application requesting leave to proceed in forma pauperis if he wishes to

1 collaterally challenge that conviction.<sup>1</sup> Because a different case file number would be assigned to 2 any habeas action filed with the court, in order to avoid confusion plaintiff should not put the 3 case file number assigned to this case on any habeas petition he may elect to file with the court.

4 Because plaintiff has attempted to bring both a civil right action and habeas action
5 in his complaint, the complaint will be dismissed and plaintiff will be granted leave to file an 6 amended complaint. The Civil Rights Act under which this action is proceeding, provides as 7 follows:

8 Every person who, under color of [state law] . . . subjects, or causes 9 to be subjected, any citizen of the United States . . . to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the 10 Constitution . . . shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress.

11 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The statute requires that there be an actual connection or link between the 12 actions of the defendants and the deprivation alleged to have been suffered by plaintiff. See 13 Monell v. Department of Social Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978); Rizzo v. Goode, 423 U.S. 362
14 (1976). "A person 'subjects' another to the deprivation of a constitutional right, within the 15 meaning of § 1983, if he does an affirmative act, participates in another's affirmative acts or 16 omits to perform an act which he is legally required to do that causes the deprivation of which 17 complaint is made." Johnson v. Duffy, 588 F.2d 740, 743 (9th Cir. 1978).

18 Here, plaintiff alleges that there was a delay in obtaining his medications during 19 his parole search and incarceration at the Butte County Jail. Plaintiff is informed that in order to 20 state a § 1983 claim for violation of the Eighth Amendment based on inadequate medical care, 21 plaintiff must allege "acts or omissions sufficiently harmful to evidence deliberate indifference to 22 serious medical needs." Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97, 106 (1976). A claim of constitutionally

23 <sup>1</sup> Petitioner is cautioned that the habeas corpus statute imposes a one-year statute of 24 limitations for filing non-capital habeas corpus petitions in federal court. In most cases, the one-25 year period will start to run on the date on which the state court judgment became final by the 26 conclusion of direct review or the expiration of time for seeking direct review, although the statute of limitations is tolled while a properly filed application for state post-conviction or other collateral review is pending. See 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d).

1 inadequate medical care has two elements: "the seriousness of the prisoner's medical need and
2 the nature of the defendant's response to that need." McGuckin v. Smith, 974 F.2d 1050, 1059
3 (9th Cir. 1992).

4 A medical need is serious "if the failure to treat the prisoner's condition could 5 result in further significant injury or the 'unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain.'" 974 F.2d
6 at 1059 (quoting Estelle, 429 U.S. at 104). If a plaintiff establishes that he presented a serious
7 medical need at the relevant time, the plaintiff must next prove that the defendants responded to 8 the serious medical need with deliberate indifference. Proof that a defendant acted with 9 deliberate indifference is required to satisfy the subjective prong of the two-part test that is 10 applicable to any Eighth Amendment claim. See Farmer, 511 U.S. at 834.

11 Plaintiff also claims that from March 15, 2004 to July 27, 2005, he was unable to 12 pursue his cases because unspecified persons at High Desert State Prison would not provide him
13 with postage, photocopies of legal materials and access to his legal property. It is well-settled
14 that "[p]risoners have a constitutional right of access to the courts guaranteed by the Fourteenth 15 Amendment." Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817, 821 (1977). However, an inmate alleging a 16 violation of Bounds must demonstrate an actual injury to court access. Lewis v. Casey, 518 U.S.
17 343, 349 (1996). To demonstrate "actual injury," plaintiff must show that he "could not present a 18 claim to the courts because of the state's failure to fulfill its constitutional obligations." Allen v.
19 Sakai, 48 F.3d 1082, 1091 (9th Cir. 1995). Therefore, should plaintiff decide to attempt to 20 pursue this claim in this action, he must provide further allegations demonstrating actual injury.

21 Finally, plaintiff is informed that the court cannot refer to a prior pleading in order
22 to make plaintiff's amended complaint complete. Local Rule 15-220 requires that an amended
23 complaint be complete in itself without reference to any prior pleading. This is because, as a 24 general rule, an amended complaint supersedes the original complaint. See Loux v. Rhay, 375
25 F.2d 55, 57 (9th Cir. 1967). Once plaintiff files an amended complaint, the original pleading no
26 ////

1 longer serves any function in the case. Therefore, in an amended complaint, as in an original 2 complaint, each claim and the involvement of each defendant must be sufficiently alleged.

3 Plaintiff has filed requests for the appointment of counsel. The United States
4 Supreme Court has ruled that district courts lack authority to require counsel to represent
5 indigent prisoners in § 1983 cases. Mallard v. United States Dist. Court, 490 U.S. 296, 298
6 (1989). In certain exceptional circumstances, the court may request the voluntary assistance of 7 counsel pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1). Terrell v. Brewer, 935 F.2d 1015, 1017 (9th Cir.
8 1991); Wood v. Housewright, 900 F.2d 1332, 1335-36 (9th Cir. 1990). In the present case, the 9 court does not find the required exceptional circumstances. Plaintiff's requests for the 10 appointment of counsel will therefore be denied.

11 In light of the above, plaintiff's other motions filed on September 1, 2005, are 12 premature or unnecessary. Therefore, the motions will be denied. Also, on September 6, 2005, 13 plaintiff filed a motion styled, "Motion For Order To Show Cause For Petitioner's Rebuttal of 14 Magistrate Judge's Assistance Or Job Position In Furtherance Judicial/Court Proceedings' In 15 Petitioner's Case(s) In/For All Subject Matter, In Any Judicial Finding's and 16 Recommendations'." Therein plaintiff requests that a different Magistrate Judge be assigned to 17 this case merely because petitioner disagrees with a prior order issued by the undersigned. The 18 motion will be denied. See 28 U.S.C. § 144.

19 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

20 1. Plaintiff's motion to proceed in forma pauperis, filed on August 29, 2005, is 21 granted.

22 2. Plaintiff is obligated to pay the statutory filing fee of $250.00 for this action.
23 The fee shall be collected and paid in accordance with this court's order to the Director of the 24 California Department of Corrections filed concurrently herewith.

25 3. Plaintiff's complaint, filed on September 1, 2005, is dismissed.

26 ////

1           4. Plaintiff is granted thirty days from the date of service of this order to file an 2 amended complaint that complies with the requirements of the Civil Rights Act, the Federal 3 Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Local Rules of Practice; the amended complaint must bear the 4 docket number assigned this case and must be labeled "Amended Complaint"; plaintiff must use
5 the form complaint provided by the court and attachments to the complaint may not exceed a
6 total of ten pages; plaintiff must file an original and two copies of the amended complaint; failure
7 to file an amended complaint in accordance with this order will result in a recommendation that 8 this action be dismissed.

9           5. Plaintiff's requests for the appointment of counsel, filed on July 27, 2005 and 10 September 1, 2005, are denied.

11           6. Plaintiff's further requests and motions, filed on September 1, 2005, are 12 denied.

13           7. Plaintiff's motion for an order to show cause, filed on September 6, 2005, is 14 denied.

15           8. The Clerk of the Court is directed to provide plaintiff with the court's form 16 complaint for a section 1983 action, the form petition for a writ of habeas corpus, and the 17 application requesting leave to proceed in forma pauperis by a prisoner.
